

The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, August 3. 1768.

London, August 3.

Yesterday arriv'd from Flanders the Mail of Friday last.

From the Brussels Gazette, dated Aug. 7.

Naples, July 10.

CARDINAL Grimani applies himself wholly to establish on a good Foot the Affairs of this Kingdom, and particularly the Chamber of the Treasury without laying new Taxes on the People: To this End he often assists in the Councils of the Ministers, and causes their Resolutions to be speedily executed. He has caus'd the publick Granaries to be visited, and a great Quantity of damag'd Corn to be cast into the Sea, for preventing Distempers. The Price of Corn is much diminish'd; there being plenty of it here at present. His Eminency has refus'd the Presents offer'd to him; has resolv'd to cause a Squadron of Gallies to be built; and Privateers to be fitted out; and sent Order to the Presidents of the Provinces to take a Review of the Militia of the Country, which amount to 30000 Foot and 6000 Horse: Good part of those Militia is to march towards the Abruzzo and the other Frontiers of the Kingdom, whither some German Troops are also to march. The Expedition against Sicily is put off to a further Time, whereupon the sending of more Troops to Calabria is suspended; those which are about Reggio are to remain there to secure the Coasts of Calabria against the Descents of the Corsairs of Barbary and of the Privateers of Sicily. The Chevalier Pallavicini return'd hither Yesterday with his Frigats and Tartans, which transported some Troops to Orbitello.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Aug. 7.

Naples, July 10. Cardinal Grimani shews himself very diligent to consult the good of the Kingdom. His Eminency assists daily in the Conferences of the collateral Council, and by Edicts has strictly forbidden the Exportation of Corn; with which this City is at present so well supplied by Tartans from Calabria, that 'tis much fallen in Price. Yesterday a Proclamation was publish'd in the Name of the Viceroy, promising Pardon to all the Spanish Soldiers who have deserted the King's Service; provided they return to their Colours within 6 Weeks. The Ministers of England and Holland here are laying in Stores of Provisions for the Squadron which is expected from the Confederate Fleet the beginning of next Month, to assist in the Expedition against Sicily; tho' some are of Opinion an Enterprize against Sardinia will first be put in Execution.

Turin, July 17. To Day our Duke set out from hence with a very Magnificent Equipage, for the Army; which is to begin its march to Morrow through Savoy into France. The French Forces in those Parts consist of 80 weak Battallions; but 30 of them being put into their Frontier Places, and their Horse being in all but 2000, 'tis hop'd our Duke's Army which is compos'd of 30000 Foot and 7000 Horse will achieve something very considerable this Campaign.

Antibes, July 18. Three French Men of War took on board last Saturday 800 Men at Nizza, and the next Day sail'd with them for the Islands of Majorca and Minorca. Above 10000 Peasants are march'd to defend the Sea-Coast of Provence against the Attempts apprehended from the Confederate Fleet. P. S. Most of the French Troops in Provence, are on the march to Dauphine.

Grenoble, July 24. The Duke of Savoy has already forc'd divers Posts on the Frontier of Savoy, and is encamp'd in the Tarantaise within 2 Miles of Montiers, Fort St. Maurice is defended vigorously; but the Enemy having had 4 Cannon brought to them over the Mountains, will soon reduce it; which done, his Royal Highness's Way lies open to Chambery. The Marshal de Villars is drawing his Army together under the Fort of Barreaux, where great Intrenchments are thrown up.

From the Brul. Gaz. and Antw. Cour. dated Aug. 7.

Paris, August 3. We are inform'd by Letters from Grenoble of the 28th of last Month, that the Marshal de Villars had posted 50 Battallions in the Intrenchments under the Cannon of the Fort of Barreaux, there to make the last Stand; that on Advice the Duke of Savoy was within 4 Leagues of Chambery, he went to see whether that Place be in a Condition of Defence as M. de la Valliere had assur'd him; designing if he found it was not, to withdraw the Garrison to serve elsewhere; that he would take a View of the Lake of Bourget and of Part of the Rhone, and then return to the Passage call'd des Croffes which may be defended by 2 Battallions; and that if the Duke of Savoy should advance to the Fort of Barreaux, he would throw himself into the Intrenchments to receive him, with M. de Medavi and de Thouy who had retir'd thither from Modane and St. Maurice: That his Royal Highness bent his March through the Maurienne with 30000 Men, and another Body of 7000 through the Tarantaise, with a great Number of light Cannon, small Mortars, and 4000 Mules loaded; and that 'twas apprehended his Design was to take footing on this Side of the Mountains, and send strong Detachments into the lower Dauphine, into the Lioinois, and into Bresse, to settle Contributions. The Marshal de Catinat is at present at Fontainebleau, and frequently in Conference with the King. They write from Court, that the Duke of Savoy is come on this Side of Chambery, and that the King has dispatch'd Orders for reinforcing with all Expedition the Army of the Marshal de Villars with 34 Squadrons, viz. 12 from the Army of the Elector of Bavaria, 10 from Roussillon, 6 from Provence, and 6 from Languedoc. The Marquis de Roquelaure an Officer in the Gendarmerie, is dead of the Wounds he receiv'd in the Battle near Audenarde. M. de Gatines formerly Intendant de Marine at Dunkirk, died some Days ago in the 61st Year of his Age. Prince Charles of Lorraine Bishop of Osnabrug and Olmutz, who conducted the Queen of Spain to Genoa, is arriv'd at Luneville, whence he will return to Germany. There is little said at Court of our Army in Flanders, only that if the Allies by taking any of our Frontier-Towns facilitate their advancing up into our Country, the Duke of Burgundy will make some Motion to hinder them. Letters from Tortosa of the 21st past, tell us that our Troops have been oblig'd by the great Heats to leave the Field, to refresh themselves 4 or 5 Weeks in the Plains of Urgel and Vicq. The Army of the Allies is encamp'd at Cambrils not far from Terragona, along the Sea-Coast.

From the Brussels Gazette, dated Aug. 7.

Brussels, Aug. 7. Letters from Lisle say the Consternation there increas'd daily, upon the great Preparations made by the Allies for a Siege, which the Inhabitants believ'd was design'd against them: The Elector of Cologne, who had his Residence there, set out from thence the 31st of last Month, with all his Retinue, for Valenciennes. Several Thousands more of the better sort of People, and especially Women and Children, have also retir'd from that City with their best Effects. The Armies on both Sides continue in their former Camps. Several Days have been spent in loading Ammunition and all manner of Stores of War; And Yesterday in the Afternoon the whole Convoy, with the heavy Artillery, march'd under a strong Guard for the Army of the Allies.

Southampton,

Southampton, July 29. 'Yesterday arriv'd here the John Transport of Plymouth Burgis Master, from St. Malo. She brought over 500 Prisoners of War, part whereof Landed at Weymouth, the rest came ashore here; and we are assur'd that there were not more than between 3 and 400 of our Seamen left Prisoners in those Parts when they came away.

London, Aug. 2. Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from the West Indies, with Letters dated the 18th of June, importing, That on the 2d Commodore Wager with Her Majesty's Ships the Expedition, Kingston, Portland, and a Fireship, met the Spanish Galeons and other Ships, in all 14 Sail, between the Brew and Friends Islands. The Expedition engag'd the Spanish Admiral, which after an Hour's Fight blew up: Then the fell upon the Rear-Admiral, and after 3 Hours Dispute took her. The Vice-Admiral getting among the Shoals, escap'd from the Kingston which had engag'd her, and with the rest got into Cartagena. The 3d in the Morning they chas'd another Galleon, which ran ashore, and the Spaniards blowing up her Stern quitted her. Of the Admiral Galleon which blew up, only 17 Men were sav'd out of 7 or 800. The Kingston and Portland were left at Cartagena, to keep in the Spanish Ships there, and get what they can out of the Galleon that is run ashore.

London, August 2. The following Letter has been communicated to us.

Kingston, June 18. in the Evening. 'This Day I was in Company with Captain Tudor, Commander of her Majesty's Ship the Dolphin, who came into Port-Royal Harbour from the Coast, and says, that the Galleon that is taken he believes to be worth at least Two Millions Sterling, that every common Sailor's share will be at least 500 l. that Captain Long the Captain of the Expedition's share will be at least 10000 l. but believes it will be much more; that there are 16 French Marquises and Spanish Dons, who Dine every Day with the Commodore, all which had vast Treasure on Board; and that the Rear Admiral, whose Ship we took, had 40000 l. of his own Money on board under his own Mark. It is said they are now in Sight, but the Pacquet and Ships being to Sail early to Morrow Morning I must conclude.
